OFFICE OF THE CHIEF COMMANDANT,
MYSORE STATE TROOPS,

Bangalore dated 19 A 192

LT. COL. B. CHAMARAJ URS SARDAR BAHADUR,
Chief Commandant, Mysore State Troops, Bangalore.

To K.matthan,Esq,B.A.,

Offg.Chief Secretary to Govt of H.H.the Maharaja of Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith for favourable ---- consideration, application dated 11th July 1921, from Doctor S.Narayana Rao, Medical Officer, Mysore Imperial Service Lancers, praying for enhanced status and emoluments and to state that he deserves every consideration at the hands of Government.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

B. Chamaraj

Lt.Col...B.
Chief Commandant,
Mysore State Troops.

19.8.21

To

The Chief Commandant,

Mysore State Troops, Bangalore.

Sir,

On the 20th February last year, I submitted a memorial to His Highness the Yuvaraja of Mysore setting forth my grievances in the matt of my emoluments and status, fully hoping that my claims would be sympa -tically considered and justice done to me.

Finding that my hopes have gone in vain, I beg once again lay before you, a brief statement of my case feeling confident that this time my prayers cannot go unheard.

(2) When I was sent out on field service in October 1914, I was an Assistant Surgeon getting Rs. 150/- as pay plus Rs. 50/- and Rs. 30/- as al -lowances. Owing to my peculiar social and domestic circumstances, I then very unwilling to go out of the country but generous promises were held out to me so that I could feel that even though I suffered some temporary hardship, I would ultimately be able to gain a position of con -siderable advantage to my family.

(3) But while abroad, I was looking forward in vain to the fulfil- of the kind promise. I lost the old allowances, but did not get instead, the special allowance of Rs. 100/- given to Squadron Commanders with whom was ranked. Sometime after I received in common with the rest of the sta on the field, a special allowance. On furtner representation, Government finally ordered that the special allowance due to me by virtue of my ran as Squadron Commander, might be treated as part of my regular pay. But this has not materially improved my position in as much as I should have attained to the same position as a matter of course, even if I had stay at home in Service, by reason of sheer efflux of time. For all the risk undertook, and all the hardships that I and the members of my family ha to undergo I was not benefitted, while most of the Regimental Officers & men have been fortunate enough to receive special recognitions at the hands of both the British and Mysore Government. In the actions particu -ly at Haifa and Aleppo, I was actually in the midst of heavy fire and tre

I was in fear of losing my own life every minute, I have faced all dan- and stood firm in my post rendering aid to the wounded men and Officer- If this fact had only been brought to the notice of the higher authorit- I would have been lucky. But as ill luck would have it for me, I lost a- my chances and even in our state when the re-organisation of the Medica- Department took place in 1918, my case as an Assistant Surgeon drawing R 250/- for over three years, was never taken notice of.

(4) It is not for me to dwell at any length upon the merits of my work. Various reports and recommendations sent by Officers like Major Curtis, Col. Lambert, Generals Henderson, and Harboard, testify to the devotion, courage, loyalty and steadfastness with which I applied myse- to my duties in the most perilous situations. As you were aware, Major Henderson who by then, was elevated to the rank of Brigadier General, re- -commended me in consultation with Major Rutherfoord I.M.S. , Senior Medical Officer of the I.S.Cavalry Brigade, for a temporary commission i- the I.M.S. But for more reasons than one, I declined the offer and prefer serving my own country and my own Sovereign, notwithstanding that the change would bring me a few hundreds of rupees more. But I cherished the hope that my losses would be made good in time by my own generous and fa- minded Government.

(5) When I had come out on leave in 1916, I had thoughts of apply- for permission to stay away here, but His Highness the Yuvaraja of Mysore and the then Dewan Sir M.Visvesvarayya, spoke to me words of encouragem- and assured me that my services, humble though they be, would not go un- -recognised. Taking courage once again, and leaving at home my partner i- life in indifferent health, I proceeded on my duty in the expectation of the betterment of my prospects. But my expectations were futile since I was informed later on that our Government had raised me to a temporary Surgeon's grade but witnout additional emoluments. I humbly submitted - the decision of the Government hoping that sooner or later something - be done. In the meanwhile I received further offers for a commission i- I.M.S. but even this I declined. When our Regiment was stationed in Arin 1919, it would have been easier for me to go to England and stay the for six months or a year in order to improve my professional qualifica-tions and prospects. But relying on the potentiality of the promises I had received, I laid aside the idea of going to England and I had decline the I.M.S. and even I had denied to myself the pleasure of being by the side of sick wife and helpless children. What troubles me now is the anguish that comes from the thought that if perhaps I had stayed at home, would have been able to restore my wife to health and save her from un-timely death.

(6) I have no mind to weary you with further details of the sad tale of my disappointments. After nearly six years of loyal and devoted service rendered in utter disregard of danger to life and in lands unknown and far from home what has fallen to my lot, is the mortification of finding that my work has not been deemed worthy of suitable recognition and the humiliation of finding that those who were much my juniors at the start, are now among my equals and superiors. I beg to state that I have also submitted this representation to the Senior Surgeon, Mysore Government, recommend my case to our generous Government and I pray that you might be pleased to bestow your kindest thoughts on my case and secure to me the status and pay of a Surgeon which was promised to me long ago and to which, I hope, my record of work fully entitles me.

For which act of kindness I shall ever remain most grateful.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Medical Officer,

Mysore Imperial Service Lancers.
